Parents Evening

We hope that you have all been able to make a convenient appointment for Parents Evening. Pre-School are holding their consultations the week beginning 31st October.

Governors Update

Simon Freeland was appointed unopposed to the position of parent governor. Tony Bradbury has been elected by the governing body to the position of Chair of Governors, he can be contacted through the school office or using Chair@Townley.cambs.sch.uk. More details about the governing body will follow next week.

Roald Dahl Competition

Class 1—Best colouring picture

Class 2— Enormous Crocodile sheet

Class 3—Decorate Mr Twit's beard

The children need to collect a sheet from their class teacher or the library monitors. There will be a prize for the best entry for each class. Entries need to be in by 11st November for judging on Wednesday 2nd November.

Bags to School

Please ensure you return your bags of re-useable clothing, paired shoes and soft toys by 9am Tuesday morning.

Reading Trophy

The reading trophies have been awarded this week to Meagan, Harvey and Lucas.

Well done, keep on reading!

Acorn Club

Thank you Mrs Ford for starting up Acorn Club again. Thank you to the adults who have helped supervise this. Particularly Mrs Reed-Hughes who has made the pond so much cleaner!

Defibrillator Training

Thank you to the parents and local community who attended the fantastic training led by the East of England Ambulance Service on Wednesday. I hope that you found it as useful as I did!
